

Stephen Haas, Esq.

Mr. Stephen Haas, Esq., has been running the educational operations for National Paralegal College since its inception in 2003, and has served as Chief Academic Officer since 2009. Stephen has enjoyed working with DEAC (a relationship that dates back to 2005) as an evaluator and workshop presenter, and brings his love of all things related to school operations to the Commission.

In particular, Stephen has focused on learning assessment, institutional research and outcomes data analysis. Stephen has also consulted for multiple schools and educational service providers and has spearheaded the production of close to 500 courses. Stephen earned his JD from Pace University School of Law and, before going into education, worked at multiple prosecutors' offices and small law firms.
