Report from the Accrediting Commission March 7, 2025

The Distance Education Accrediting Commission (the Commission) met on January 24, 2025. This report summarizes the accreditation actions taken by the Accrediting Commission on January 24, 2025, in accordance with its procedure for Notification and Information Sharing (Section XV.C. and G.), Part Two, Processes and Procedures, DEAC Accreditation Handbook.

Denial of Accreditation:

The Commission acted to deny initial accreditation to the following institution:

ADEN University

2850 Douglas Rd Suite 304
Miami, FL 33134

ADEN University was provided written notice of this action on February 24, 2025. ADEN was given until March 6, 2025 to notify DEAC of its intention to appeal. DEAC did not receive an application to appeal; therefore, the Commission's action is final. ADEN has been provided with written notice of the opportunity to provide official comments on the Commission's decision. Comments must be submitted by March 21, 2025.

Information about the reasons for the Commission's decision and the pertinent standards can be found on the Accreditation Denial page of our website: <https://www.deac.org/public-notices/accreditation-denial/>

Revocation of Accreditation:

The Commission voted to deny an application for reaccreditation and to withdraw the accreditation of the institution named below.

Anaheim University

1240 South State College Boulevard, Room 110
Anaheim, CA 92806-5150

Anaheim University was provided with a written notice of this action on February 24, 2025. Anaheim notified DEAC of its intention to appeal the Commission's decision on March 6, 2025. The institution remains accredited while the Commission's decision is under appeal.

Information about the reasons for the Commission's decision and the pertinent standards can be found on the accreditation denial page of our website: <https://www.deac.org/public-notices/accreditation-denial/>
